

FlamePoint 34: Black Hills Declaration

FLAMEPOINT DECLARATION

34. BLACK HILLS, SOUTH DAKOTA

ANCESTRAL CONVERGENCE NODE

We honor the land where the ancestors stood in defense of the sacred.

This FlamePoint calls forward the bloodlines of light - Lakota, Dakota, Nakota, and all sovereign families who remember.

This land is now recognized as a sanctuary of reconciliation, truth, and guardian renewal.

Here, the children are protected by the wisdom of the elders.

Here, remembrance becomes power.

Let the convergence begin. Let the flames unite.
