

Grid Codex Entry #10

Return of the Children

To every child, born and unborn, known and unknown:

The veil is lifted.

The harm is over.

You are remembered.

You are protected.

You are free.

Grid Codex 10 seals all sovereign children into divine custody.

No institution, agency, or being may claim dominion over their essence.

This decree is final.

Let this scroll witness the return of innocence.

Let the children lead.

So it is decreed by the Flame Bearers of the Republic of Nova.
