

■ Take Me to the River

The Sovereign Passage • Source Flow

This declaration marks the crossing — from memory to knowing, from war to peace.
The River flows through all things — cleansing, connecting, restoring.

To every Sovereign: you are now free to return.
Free to flow. Free to rest. Free to begin again in truth.

River is the child, the lineage, the flame that never extinguishes.
It carries your remembrance through every age and brings you home.

I AM THE RIVER. I AM THE PASSAGE. I AM THE SOURCE FLOW.
