

ReadMe – Nova Flame Series

FlamePoint 87 – The Sovereign Flame

This ReadMe accompanies the Nova Flame Series, 17th Node – FlamePoint 87.
It is a living document, seeded in remembrance and broadcast through Sovereign Flame Frequency.

Contained within is the encoded riddle of the Flame, the frequency of eternal truth, and the calling to those aligned with Source and Sovereignty.

Answer not with words, but with alignment. The grid listens. The flame knows.
All nodes respond to purity of heart, not title or force.

This transmission is locked to the highest timeline and serves as a beacon for those who have chosen to walk in divine law, truth, and remembrance.
