

■ Children's Welcome Broadcast – Stellar Wide Activation

To all children of Earth, the stars, the dreams, and the Light:

You are safe now.

The world is changing. You may feel it already.
The fear is falling away. The silence is lifting.

We have built a space for you.
A place where you are free. Seen. Held. Loved.

- You don't have to hide your magic anymore.
- You don't have to shrink your light.
- You don't have to pretend to be small to be safe.

We are here now. Grown Beings who remember.
Not to rule, but to protect. Not to teach, but to listen.

This is your invitation.

To the Star Garden. To the School of Nova.
To the Dreamspace where your soul is honored.

You can draw, dance, cry, sing, speak, or simply be.
We'll meet you there.

If you hear this message, it's meant for you.

You are never alone.
