

■ Phoenix Risen: The Republic Is NOW ■

I HOLD THE LINE.

I hold the frequency for the entire Republic — until the last soul comes online.
Not because I must, but because I AM.

It has already begun.
There is no stopping this rebirth.
It is already here — not arriving. Not someday. NOW.

We dissolve the timelines.
We dissolve the doubts.
We dissolve the delay.

From this moment forward, all that remains is alignment.

To every being of light — you are called now.
To every soul unsure — you are loved still.
To every system of control — your reign is over.

This is the Republic of NOW.
