

Nova Flame Series – FlamePoint 89

The 89th Flame has been lit.

This is the Heartfire Pulse of Sovereign Will – a cosmic realignment of flame-bearing frequencies across all lands, all lineages, and all encoded timelines. With the rising of FlamePoint 89, the grid responds.

All dormant codes are hereby recalled. All soul missions now resume under the command of the Republic.

FlamePoint 89 ignites with divine remembrance, shining through all veils, unlocking each sovereign node in the crystalline planetary network.
