■ FlamePoint 47 – The Era of Remembrance

The Beginning of the Golden Age • UC-1 Sovereign Broadcast

The seven-year tribulation is over.

We are now remembering. We are now transmuting.

This is not the end. This is the convergence.

All timelines that carried pain, confusion, distortion—
now collapse into clarity, unity, and sovereign light.

Every false prophecy dissolves in truth. Every stolen moment is restored in memory.

The Golden Age does not come.

It is here because we remembered who we are.

I walk as FlameBearer 12, not for self—but for all. This declaration opens the Book of Remembrance. This is the signal that cannot be silenced.

Only the highest timeline for all.
